PAULINE CUSHNIE

Pauline Cushnie is a London-based contemporary expressionist artist known for her emotive portraits and still life works. Her practice centres on capturing the essence and presence of her subjects, prioritising emotional truth over literal likeness. Through bold brushwork and "punching colour," her paintings convey energy, depth, and psychological intensity.

This exhibition, Faces - Punching Colour, brings together a striking collection of expressionist portraits and still life works, each revealing the inner life of the sitter. Cushnie's approach invites the viewer to engage beyond surface appearance, exploring themes of femininity, strength, and human complexity.

Cushnie is Vice President of the Hesketh Hubbard Art Society, the UK's largest life drawing society, and plays an active role in supporting emerging artists, including as a selector for the Hesketh Hubbard Bursaries at Mall Galleries. She is also an exhibiting member of the Islington Art Society and has participated in exhibitions across London, including at Valentines Mansion and Art Catcher.

Her work extends into collaborative and contemporary projects, including a 2025 Leicester Square collaboration promoting The Thursday Murder Club.

All works in the exhibition are available for sale.
